

VIDEOS: Whitefish Montana Conference Interviews

Quite a lot of information is still to come on the amazing conference held on October 13th in Whitefish, Montana.

Sponsored by This West Is Our West and featuring experts discussing your rights, here are a few of the interviews held by Redoubt News.

Dan Happel is an expert on Agenda 21, Sustainable Development and property rights issues. He hosts Connecting the Dots radio program and serves on numerous boards, including Freedom Force International.

Norman Semanko served as Executive Director & General Counsel for the Idaho Water Users Association for 17 years, overseeing operations, monitoring water issues, analyzing federal and state legislation and regulations, advocating in the Idaho State Legislature, before Congress, and various agencies, organizing legal and educational seminars, and supervising staff, providing legal advice and services to the association, including litigation and appeals. In 2016, he was recognized as an "Idaho Leader in Law" by the Idaho Business Review for his work.

Rep. Matt Shea is recognized nationally as a Constitutional conservative and a pro-liberty legislator. He was elected to the Washington House of Representatives in November 2008, and as of 2017, is the current House Republican Caucus Chair.

DVDs of the conference will be available soon, please watch for them here.